

Give. Grow. Grant.

Support Sumter Community Foundation

Building a Permanent Endowment for Sumter

Sumter Community Foundation brings together generous individuals, families, and businesses who believe in the power of local giving to strengthen the Sumter community.

As an affiliate of Central Carolina Community Foundation, the Sumter Community Foundation works alongside local leaders and is guided by a volunteer board of advisors to identify emerging needs, support high-impact nonprofits, and build permanent charitable resources for Sumter County.

Rooted in deep local knowledge, Sumter Community Foundation is uniquely positioned to address critical needs today while also preparing for the future. Sumter Community Foundation makes grants to charitable organizations to build a thriving Sumter.

Scan the QR code
to give today!

How Does It Work?

Local Giving. Lasting Impact.

Since 1998, the Sumter Community Foundation has granted over $290,000 to nonprofits across Sumter, supporting essential services and community-driven solutions.

Judge Finney mural funded by Sumter Community Foundation.
Artist: McClellan Douglas. Photo: Karen Watson.

Sumter
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Learn more at SumterCF.org

Ways to Support Sumter Community Foundation

Your support helps create a stronger, more resilient Sumter. Gifts to Sumter Community Foundation are invested for long-term growth, ensuring charitable dollars are available now and for generations to come.

Your generosity helps:

- Build permanent charitable resources dedicated to Sumter
- Expand annual grantmaking to address both urgent and emerging needs
- Strengthen and sustain local nonprofits
- Foster collaboration and innovation across the community

Scan the QR code
to give today!

Mail a Check Contribution

Send a check to Central Carolina Community Foundation – 2142 Boyce Street, Suite 402, Columbia, SC 29201 – with “Sumter Community Foundation” noted on the memo line.

Make a Gift Online

Give securely at SumterCF.org or using the QR code at the top of this page.

Give via your Donor Advised Fund

Recommend a grant from your Donor Advised Fund to Central Carolina Community Foundation and designate it for Sumter Community Foundation.

Direct Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs)

Individuals may direct a QCD from an individual retirement account (IRA) to Sumter Community Foundation to satisfy all or part of their Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) while supporting Sumter.

Donate Stock or Appreciated Assets

Give tax-efficiently by contributing stocks, bonds, or mutual funds.

Include Sumter Community Foundation in Your Estate Plans

Leave a legacy by naming Sumter Community Foundation in your will, trust, retirement plan, or life insurance policy.

Together, we are building a lasting philanthropic resource – ensuring that the Sumter community continues to thrive now and for generations to come.

Questions?
Contact Bob Evans at bob@yourfoundation.org or 803-978-7831